Kęblów

This happened in the town of Piaski wielkie on the twelfth (twenty-fifth) of March in the year one-thousand nine-hundred one at the hour of four in the afternoon. There appeared Paweł [Kulik?], twenty-eight years of age, and Konstanty [Bolusz?], twenty-seven years of age, [three words?] in Kęblów, and he stated that on this day at the hour of four after midnight [four words?], Wincenty Dańko died, fifty-eight years of age, a laborer, having been born in [Potbia?] and residing in Kęblów, son of the married couple Wojciech Dańko and Agnieszka née Guz, leaving behind his widowed wife Marianna née Basian. After eyewitness testimony on the death of Wincenty Dańko, this document was read aloud to the declarants who were illiterate, and was signed only by Us.
